CAREER-RELATED:

1) ALUMNI CAREERS NETWORK

The Alumni Careers Network (ACN) is an online database of Princeton alumni who have volunteered to provide career-related advice and assistance to Princeton students and fellow alumni. The ACN began in 1980 as several binders containing the names and contact information of several hundred alumni who offered career advice to students and fellow alumni. Since 1999 the ACN has been online and now has over 4,000 alumni volunteers worldwide!

The ACN may be searched by many options, among them are geographic location, general career field, class year, employer or keywords. With 4,000 volunteers worldwide, the ACN is a vast network to tap when considering a career, changing careers, or to simply network within your own field.
